

Air 1 serves my community with quality Christian programming. If it is replaced with LPFM we would lose that programming since there is no local station with similar programming. The service provides a quality alternative to secular music and is beneficial to kids and adults alike.